VOL. 14, NUMBER 73 MONESSEN, PA, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1915 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

DIVE KEEPER HEAVILY FINED BY BURGESS

Quite a sensational case came before Burgess A. G. Dunlap in police court this morning wherein Margaret alias Frankie Layton, colored, was charged with disorderly conduct. Aline Baker was the leading witness and it developed in the course of her testimony that Frankie was operating a speakeasy and disorderly house at Twelfth and Schoonmaker avenue.

The Baker woman testified that she was summoned to the house yesterday to entertain men, and that she and other women had been summoned there on divers occasions for the same purpose and that she collected money and divided the profits with Frankie. She said the Layton woman sold whiskey and beer and that she and others had bought and paid for it. The Baker woman said she was brought here from Washington for immoral purposes.

While the police have had the house under suspicion for several weeks, a fight developed yesterday afternoon between the women and the Baker woman called the officers. According to the testimony at the hearing, more places in that section will be under suspicion and more arrests may follow. The burgess fined the Layton woman $15.00 and costs and held the Baker woman as a witness to a suit that will be filed, charging illegal liquor selling. Constable A. J. Smith had the warrant ready to serve this morning. In case bail is not forthcoming it is likely the women will be taken to Greensburg some time today.

IRON-STEEL CONVENTION

The Association of Iron and Steel Electrical Engineers meet in annual convention at the Statler hotel, Detroit, Mich., September 8, 9, 10, 11. Monessen will be represented with two delegates, C. D. Rowell, representing the Pittsburgh Steel Co., and H. H. Ryde representing the Page Woven Wire Fence Co. Some of the leading electrical men of the country have arranged to take part in the discussion and read papers of interest to the electrical portion of the steel industry.

BIG DAY

Three thousand persons attended the Labor Day celebration at Charleroi yesterday. Two ball games were played between the Charleroi team and the Bentleyville Y. M. C. A. At noon a parade was the feature, and about 1500 persons marched The parade was a great success. Several of the leading business houses had gaily decorated floats. Four bands furnished music for the day. In the afternoon the speaker was J. R. Rowand of Harrisburg, a representative of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Leroy Bruce had charge of the celebration.

CHAMBERLIN ANNOUNCES

John Chamberlin announces as a candidate for school director on the Republican ticket for two year term.

Mr. Chamberlin is one of Monessen's leading citizens, an employe of the Page mill and in every way fitted for school director. His many friends and interested citizens of the town urged his candidacy and he is going after the nomination to win. School directors under the new school code are elected at large and Mr. Chamberlin solicits the support of all Republican voters of the town.

TRIAL OF HEINOUS CRIME IS NOW ON

The first murder trial of the August term of criminal court began today in Greensburg. The first to be tried for murder will be Charles Douglas, alleged slayer of Joseph Smith, an aged resident of Rostraver township, near Webster.

Unusual interest has been aroused in the case of Charles Douglas, the negro. Douglas is a character that has puzzled and baffled the police. He is a typical Southern negro. He protests his innocence, claiming to have no knowledge of the murder.

Douglas was arrested in Fairmont, W. Va., several months ago by Sergeant McLaughlin of the State police. McLaughlin had followed the negro from Monesesn to Virginia and then back to Fairmont, W. Va. When the officer would arrive in one town he he would discover that the negro had left several hours before.

Mrs. Smith, the wife of the aged murdered man, identified Douglas as the man who assaulted her and then murdered her husband. A chain of circumstantial evidence that will be hard to break, has been formed about the happy, care-free negro.

The murder of Joseph Smith was one of the most foul on the crime records of the county. According to the story of Mrs Smith, the only eye witness to the murder, that on the night of June 16, a negro came to the door of their little hut near Monessen and forced entrance to the building The negro demanded money. She had none to give and told him so. The husband demanded that the negro leave the house and picked up a club to strike him. The negro pulled a gun from his pocket and fired at the old man, one of the bullets entering his heart. The negro then turned and felled the aged wife to the floor with a blow from a club. This is the story that the aged woman, who survived the attack, will tell the jury. She has previously identified Smith Douglas as the negro who committed the crime.

A. D. SPENCER AND MECHANICIAN HURLED THROUGH BOARD FENCE

Race Meet Results in Demolished Car and Two Injured People. Great Crowd Thronged the Grounds.

Despite the threatening weather and the rain that fell over a portion of this section yesterday, a large and enthusiastic crowd attended the automobile races yesterday afternoon at the Belle Vernon race track under the auspices of the Charleroi Automobile association. The rain and theratening weather no doubt marred the attendance, but the races were fast and furious. In the five mile free for all race, the big Buick Wild Cat belonging to and being driven by A. D. Spencer dashed through the high board fence and precipitated over a steep embankment, pinioning Spencer under the car. The crowd rushed to the scene of the accident and the car was lifted off Spencer and he was found to be painfully but not fatally injured. He was cut about the face and limbs and was taken to his home in Charleroi.

Martin Deitz, his mechanician, was thrown from the car after it passed through the fence and was hurled a distance of twenty five feet through the air, landing just ahead of the car. His left leg was broken and he was bruised about the head and his nose was broken. It required 48 stitches to close the wounds on his face and head. He was removed to the Monessen-Charleroi hispital where it is said his condition is serious.

The accident happened as Spencer was attempting to pass the Yellow Kid Buick at a turn on the track. The Spencer car skidded and dashed through the fence. The accident marred the races only for a brief time. The winners of the meet are as follows:

One mile trials:

Simplex, driven by Fetterman, 1.17.

Yellow Kid Buick, driven by Yudoff, 1:15.

Beaver Bullet, driven by Gardner, 1:14.

Packard Greyhound, driven by Johnson, 1:13, winner.

Wild Cat Buick, driven by Spencer, 1:15.

Maxwell, driven by Tiese, 1.26 4-5.

Thomas Special, driven by Bean, 1:18.

June Bug Ford, driven by Woodward, 1:15.

Three Mile Race—

Yellow Kid Buick, driven by Yudoff, 3:55 4-5, winner.

Second Three Mile Race—

June Bug Ford, driven by Woodward, 3:50 2-5, winner.

Three mile race, free for all handicap.

Packard Greyhound, driven by Johnson, 6:22 1-5.

20 Mile Free for all—

Arrested

A. Joseph, who conducts a confectionery at 326 Donner avenue, was arrested at the instigation of Street Commissioner Frazier, charged with violating a borough ordinance in letting empty ice cream freezers stand on the sidewalk in front of his place of business. Mr. Joseph tried to shift the responsibility and lay the blame on the firm from where he buys his ice cream, but the burgess held that Joseph was responsible for the sidewalks about his premises. Consequently a fine of $2.00 and costs was imposed. Joseph refused to pay although he said he had the money on his person. The burgess ordered his incarceration and the prisoner was placed in a cell. A transcript may be asked for and an appeal taken. Joseph sent for his attorney.

Wilson a Statesman

While diametrically opposed to the national policies of the party which Woodrow Wilson is the peer and while not agreeing with him in every stand he has taken with regard to the European crisis, we want to doff our hat to one of the greatest statesmen this country has ever produced. We are not too narrow and partisan to appreciate the stability of a great American, especially when he is at the head of our government.

Through the months of world war, President Wilson has stood for two things, justice and peace. He has neither been moulded by the iron hands of Mars, nor hacked into the mere toy image of a man by the petty little knives of cowardice. The voice of the jingo and the coo of the pacificist dove have arisen and wailed and shrieked and cooed through the wilderness, but Wilson has gone his way alone, unaided and misunderstood by some.

And yet we have the first fruits from the tree of knowledge. Germany accedes to the demands of Wilson regarding submarine warfare. This is the chief diplomatic victory of the world war; it ranks with the greatest victories of American statesmanship and it should—but, of course, it will not—put an end to the rancorous, envious, jingoistic ravings of those who have neither sense nor understanding, and who only by accident ever held high office among a deluded people. The nation, as the years go by, will come to understand that President Wilson was right: right in his attitude towards Germany; right in his attitude towards the allies; right in his handling of the Mexican situation, and that, so far as mortal eye can scan, his course was the only one that would have both upheld the honor of this nation and preserved its peace and prosperity.

President Wilson will not be fully appreciated for years at home, but he is most thoroughly appreciated abroad, and where world problems mean millions of lives and billions of treasures, and the melting pots of hell stands half tipped ready to spill its broth over continents and oceans, the power and understanding of a nation's chief like Wilson, is something personal, definite and appreciated.

President Wilson has had the biggest task ever set an American; he has conquered his problems one by one, and when they were settled they stayed settled; the nation can sleep in peace, security and prosperity, chiefly because providence in its mercy placed this man in the president's chair, and generations unborn will revere the name of this American who upheld the dignity of his office, the honor of his nation and the human welfare of 100,000,000 people despite bickering, sneers, jeers and cavil.

There is another thing the town needs and needs badly and that is a kindergarten for the children too young to go to school. Many parents have suggested the opening of a school of this kind and are ready and willing to enlist their children. Then why does not someone thoroughly competent in this line of work get busy. There would be no trouble about getting the children and at a reasonable tuition. The permanency of such an institution would depend entirely upon the person in charge. We leave the suggestion with the public. Will some one please come forward?

This town in all probability will get a good council in the majority as a result of the approaching election. The candidates aspiring to the office indicate that they mean to work for the upbuilding of the town and a fortunate thing is most of them have an interest and investment that commends them as public officials.

What would you think of a person who would hound and everlastingly flail and assail a man when he is on his death bed, then turn after death and write a solemn obituary and eulogy? Is it an act of a villian or a down right hypocrite?

DESCRIBES BATTLE ON WESTERN FRONT

LETTER FROM FRENCH SOLDIER TELLS OF THREE DAYS' STRUGGLE.

WOUNDED BY GERMAN SHELL

Father of Rene Bardet Gets Graphic Story of Charge—Pathe Employe Proud of Son.

The personal, intimate side of the great world war now being waged is lacking in the colorless, censored reports officially disseminated by the various governments of the countries involved. Rarely letters come to this country from men at the front, and it is from such letters that one gains a conception of the sensation of the brave fellows, thousands of whom are dying daily for the highest earthly ideal a man can have—"pro patria."

One such letter has been received by Mr. Gabriel Bardet, the notary of the Pathe American Company, and an old and trusted employee of that great concern. When the war broke out last summer, Mr. Bardet's two sons, Rene and George, were among the very first French-Americans to leave for France to fulfill their duty to their mother country. George, the elder, was made a prisoner in the very first weeks of the fighting, and has since been incarcerated in Germany. A few brief letters have come from him to his father, saying that he is well and as happy as could be expected under the circumstances, his greatest hardship being the lack of tasty food. Mr. Bardet has in consequence made arrangements for various delicacies to be sent to him.

It is from Rene, the younger, however, that the Pathe notary has received the most interesting letter. Rene has been in the thick of the fighting from the start and his experiences are worth narrating. He says in part as follows:

"After a terrible bloody struggle which lasted for three days I am safe and sound and taking a much needed rest. For the first time since I have been at the front I have taken part in a bayonet charge and I never had thought that our men were so brave. On the morning of the 25th of May we had received orders to go ahead. At 12:30 the struggle began. Shells were bursting all around as friends and comrades were falling thick and fast, but still we forged ahead through the hell of fire and succeeded in taking the first German lines. What happened afterwards is indescribable. We fought like tigers with bayonets, knives, stones, bombs and rifle stocks foot for foot, and yard by yard. Terrible shrieks were ringing through the air from all sides from the wounded and the dying. We could not stop to help our stricken comrades for duty compelled us to go forward at all costs. We advanced to within fifteen feet of the German third line, but our losses were so heavy that only a few of us reached there. In fact at one time there was only my captain, a sergeant and myself left. A few groups of our own soldiers ran up to reinforce us for the cry came that the Germans were making a counter-charge on our left. Just then a shell broke right over us. All in our party were bowled over like a house of cards. The next thing I knew I was in the hospital with my face and right arm heavily bandaged. Perhaps my wound saved my life and I surely look up to God and thank him for having spared my life. Chills of horror come over me when I think that of that brave little group of survivors in front of the Germans perhaps I am the only one living. The battle continued to rage for a whole day and our soldiers succeeded in retaining the two trenches we had captured. Let us hope that the sacrifices these brave men made in giving their lives will not be in vain. My poor friends! How I pity them, and hope that they are happy in heaven, for they surely deserve it."

A MAN OF ALL AROUND TALENT.

Rarely does one find a man who is an actor, a painter, a musician a writer, and a producing manager, and does all his accomplishments with great skill. Yet there is one man, William Elliott, a Pathe-Balboa star, who is to appear in "Comrade John," with Ruth Roland, who is thus versatile.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section eight of article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section. 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amend section eight, article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:

"Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenues in excess of the interest on said debt or debts, and the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of said debt or debts, may be excluded in ascertaining the power of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted: Provided, That a sinking fund of their cancellation shall be established and maintained," so that it shall read as follows:—

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the consent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation. The city of Philadelphia, upon the conditions hereinafter set forth, may increase its indebtedness to the extent of three per centum in excess of seven per centum upon such assessed valuation for the specific purpose of providing for all or any of the following purposes,—to wit. For the construction and improvement of subways, tunnels, railways, elevated railways, and other transit facilities; for the construction and improvement of wharves and docks and for the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of wharves and docks, owned or to be owned by said city. Such increase, however, shall only be made with the assent of the electors thereof at a public election, to be held in such manner as shall be provided by law. In ascertaining the borrowing capacity of said city of Philadelphia, at any time, there shall be excluded from the calculation a credit, where the work resulting from any previous expenditure, for any one or more of the specific purposes hereinabove enumerated shall be yielding to said city an annual current net revenue; the amount of which credit shall be ascertained by capitalizing the annual net revenue during the year immediately preceding the time of such ascertainment. Such capitalization shall be accomplished by ascertaining the principal amount which would yield such annual, current net revenue, at the average rate of interest, and sinking-fund charges payable upon the indebtedness incurred by said city for such purposes, up to the time of such ascertainment. The method of determining such amount, so to be excluded or allowed as a credit, may be prescribed by the General Assembly.

In incurring indebtedness, for any one, or more of said purposes of construction, improvement, or reclamation, the city of Philadelphia may issue its obligations maturing not later than fifty years from the date thereof, with provision for a sinking-fund sufficient to retire said obligation at maturity, the payments to such sinking-fund to be in equal or graded annual instalment. Such obligations may be in an amount sufficient to provide for and may include the amount of the interest and sinking-fund charges accruing and which may accrue thereon throughout the period of construction and until the expiration of one year after the completion of the work for which said indebtedness shall have been incurred; and said city shall not be required to levy a tax to pay said interest and sinking-fund charges, as required by section ten of article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, until the expiration of said period of one year after the completion of such work.

No act shall prescribe any limitations of time within which suits may be brought against corporations for injuries to persons or property, or for other causes different from those fixed by general laws regulating actions against natural persons, and such acts now existing are avoided," so that it shall read as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth (XVIII) article thereof:—

A Strong Candidate for County Treasurer

WILLIAM H. ROSE

William H. Rose, of Greensburg, is a candidate for County Treasurer. He is a son of the late C. J. Rose. He was born and reared on a farm in East Huntingdon Township. Going to Greensburg about 16 years ago when his father moved to the county seat.

He was formerly engaged in the real estate and insurance business there and for the past six years has been in the automobile business. The Rose family is one of the oldest and best known families in the Southern part of the county. They have been staunch supporters of the Republican party ever since the party has existed, and none of its members has ever held or asked for county office.

Mr. Rose appreciates the importance of the office, the time and attention it requires, and if elected, he pledges his most earnest and continued efforts to discharge its duties faithfully.

The following article appeared in a recent issue of the Scottdale Independent:

"His many friends are pleased to note the growing strength of Harry C. Wilson, aleading candidate for the office of county treasurer at the coming primary on Sep. 21. Mr. Wilson was born and brough up in this vicinity and lived here twenty-one years, working about the mines. He is a son of the late Perry B. Wilson, who was a member of Co. K, 85th P. V. At the close of the Civil war in 1865, Mr. Wilson settled in this community and remained here as one of the best known and most highly respected citizens until his death two years ago. He, with his four sons, were all staunch Republicans.

"For the past twenty years Harry C. Wilson has been a resident of Avonmore, in the northern end of the county, being at first employed there in the tin plate mills and later engaging in the hardware, real estate and other businesses. His nomination papers were signed by every Republican voter, without exception, in Avonmore, a compliment from his neighbors who know him best that is not often extended to any candidate.

"Mr. Wilson, aside from being strong in all parts of the county, is unusually strong in the north, viz: in New Kensington, Vandergrift, Hyde Park, Avonmore, etc. This is a region of Westmoreland that furnishes more Republican voters than any other section of the same population in the county, yet it has scarcely ever been remembered in the distribution of offices in the past ten years.

"Yet Scottdale, those who know him feel confident, will not be behind these towns in their loyalty to Mr Wilson. It is their hope that every voter will remember him on election day and that Scottdale people will take a just pride in the success of one of its town boys and help him to be elected County Treasurer."

Held Meeting

The Child Welfare Circle held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs G. H. Thomas on Reed avenue. Arrangements were completed yesterday at the meeting to organize a Little Mothers Club. This club will be composed of little girls from the age of 8 to 12, who have the care of younger children. They will be instructed by members of the Welfare Circle to sew, cook and care for the baby and keep the homes in sanitary condition. The Welfare circle has the co-operation of the school nurse, Miss McClure, and the community nurse, Mrs. Jeannette Kelly. Some time in the near future Mrs. J. Kelly and a worker from the Irene Kaufman settlement will address the Circle and will help to organize the Little Mothers club
